The First Word

Welcome to Hutt Park and another weekend of exciting football. The Men's Premier have had a topsy turvy start to the year but return home to our fortress. Like today's visitors Victoria University, we sit just 3 points off top spot in what is shaping up as a very close Premier League competition in 2014.

Our 2nds host league leaders Wests on Hutt park # 2 and expect a tough battle. Coach Stu Pyne is starting to mould his young charges into a strong unit playing some attractive football.

Also today on Hutt Park #3, Lenny's Master's Blacks fresh from a 2-1 victory over McCreadies Clowns look to push further up the table against Seatoun Originals. Lenny has recruited well in the off season with a couple of expat Poms and the return from the dark side of Tommy Mcloat bolstering his "international" team. A win today and the Blacks will rise to at least 3rd and quite possibly 2nd in the table. Heady heights for this team although Alastair could probably tell you in an instant the last time the Blacks were in the top half of the league!

Enjoy watching the variety of football on offer today and enjoy our Stop Out hospitality after the game!

My blood is red... and gold!

Women's roundup

Women's Division 2.
Stop Out Black vs Stop Out Red.
Hutt Park #2, 1pm Sun 4th May

Reds vs. Blacks....no it's not a flash back to the early noughty's when two Masters Mens teams battled (literally) for supremacy, it's actually happening in D2 Women's football this weekend.

The Reds under coach Terry Ross are doing it tough this winter, struggling to find the way to goal & the closest they've got is some sadly lacking finishing of chances vs. Naenae the other week & Jaimee Bialy denting the crossbar (but NOT scoring) at Wakefield last week. Brooke's classy finish with her head the other week unfortunately must go down as an OG for the opposition on that day.

However, these setbacks aside expect to see plenty of vigour in the approach play of Brooke, Janae, Emily & co. The Blacks have a higher placing on the table going into the game, courtesy of a good win & a win by default one week.

Unlikely to want to be shown up by the young punks of the Reds expect Ann, Jenny, Ali et al. to play the game on the front foot as they chase the win & 3pts.

That game is a 1pm kick off here at Hutt Park, (weather, grounds permitting). Training on Friday night will have been deafening as the chatter & banter between the two teams gets ramped up a few notches.

Women's Premier.
Stop Out vs North Wellington.
Hutt Park #1, 1pm Sun 4th May

This weekend the Premiers host North Wellington at Hutt #1. After putting rivals Vic Uni away last week (see Craig "Shakespeare" Darby's match report) the team won't want any slip ups against the youthful team from the Andes. Three games in the Stop Out team has scored 17 times, conceded just once and players like Adele, Melanie & Aimee will be keen to add to their tally's as they put themselves in the mix for the Club & League Golden Boot.

The D1 team are off to Tawa. Our hosts have made a bright start to the season & top the table, so we're in for a god challenge at Redwood - and also a smashing after match spread. It'll taste all the better when we've picked up 3pts to upset them. Back in the team this week are Heather, Hannah & Marielle, all will help strengthen our options on match day.

WOMEN'S PREMIER Match report Craig Darby vs Victoria University.

Kelburn Park 27th April 2014

Kelburn Park was not a pretty sight. The grass was long, too long to really play football. The opposition were not happy either. A major let down by the council and something that was going to do nothing for our game. These councils really need a kick in the butt as sports groups we pay our fair share money to ensure we have good grounds to play on. We later found out later that the Men's Capital Premier game on the Saturday was nearly called off due to the length of grass.

Anyway we decide to play (Our team are not like the men, we just play!) but like Vic we were also hit by the holidays with 2/3 players AWOL (No leave forms received in triplicate).

It's one of those possible banana skin games as Vic have always been competitive at Women's Premier level and we are conscious of the need to continue our winning ways to stay top of the table.

The first half is a mixture of some good play by us and time just getting used to playing to the conditions i.e. long grass and a strong wind behind us. We were pretty much all over them creating chances but just not finishing them off.

Kelsey was crook and only lasted 20 minutes meaning Sophie coming on to cover left back and we were down to 13. However finally a breakthrough and Mel scores after 34 mins to start things rolling then a final flurry before halftime sees a second to Adele. Half time 2-0.

The second half we are into the wind and desperately trying to keep our passing game going but again our Achilles heel—the corner sees a ball missed through the box and a cracking shot from Vic is in the back of the net (our first concede of the season) with no chance for Maddy. Back to 2-1 and a few heart flutters on the side line.

But we have a good team and like all good teams the pressure starts to mount on the opposition who unfortunately concede an own goal after another Stop Out attack in the 75th min. Really from then on there was nowhere for Vic to hide. The girls really asserted their dominance with another goal to Aimee in the 77min and Adele (going back on after a ball to the head) scored in the 80min Considering the conditions and the state of the ground a pleasing result against one of the leagues front runners. Fulltime 5-1 (Adele 2/Mel /Aimee/OG)

3 POINTS Saskia (first game for Prems. Ran well. Strong on the ball and created opportunities in front of goal) 2 Points Aimee, 1 Point Adele.

MENS PREMIER LEAGUE Match reports. Chris Sambrooke

Stop Out vs Island Bay United 18th April, Hutt Park

After a tough game at Karori Park we hosted a very competitive Island Bay side at Hutt Park. After a long week of rain, the ground looked good even if the grass was a little long.

The game was very even, Island Bay created a few chances in the first half but when called upon Matthew 'Andy' Everard was immense. We created a lot of space wide but could not seem to get someone on the end of some of the dangerous crosses that were created.

Half time arrived with the score 0-0. We were confident at the break that if we continued in the same way we would create enough chances to win the game, as long as we kept our composure defensively.

Within 2 minutes of the re-start, and overlapping run from Steve Gulley from left back created the only goal of the game. A great run and cross was met by Simon Conway to put away a goal on his first team debut.

From there we controlled the game until about 25 minutes to go when our Captain JT was dismissed in controversial circumstances.

From this point we went into a 4-4-1 formation and looked to protect the lead. Island Bay took a little more control of possession but we still looked dangerous on the counter.

Defensively we showed the strength required and were able to close the game out for a hard fought but well deserved 1-0 result.

Final Score: Stop Out 1 Island Bay
Scorer: Simon Conway
Man of the Match: Matthew Everard

Stop Out vs Petone
26th April, Memorial Park

We arrived at the artificial turf at Memorial on a perfect day for football. Unfortunately that was the high point of the day.

Due to injuries, absences and suspensions we had to re-shuffle the squad to get the best XI as possible out there. Petone set up well and were energetic to get behind the ball and press with high intensity throughout.

There were a couple of half chances at each end before they were able to get in behind us and pull the ball back to the edge of the area for Petone to make it 1-0. From that disappointment we responded well, and within 15 minutes we were level through a well taken goal from Simon Conway. From this point we should have been able to assert some dominance but our ball retention and defensive shape were not at the level that we expect. As a result we allowed too much space down our left side and they re-took the lead to make it 2-1.

We dominated possession in the second half but just could not create the chances that we needed to get something out of the game.

One of the positives to come from the game was the contribution off the bench of Daniel DeGaan. He has been scoring for fun this season so far for both the U17s and the reserves. There is no doubt that he will be a name being heard around the club a lot this season.

Final Score Petone 2 Stop Out 1
Scorer: Simon Conway
Man of the Match: Simon Conway

The Last Word!

Support the Women's Game

There are two types of child, according to my pediatrician friend Archie, and they are "your own and everybody else's". So, with that in mind let me tell you about the discovery my daughter made. Phoebe is twenty months old and has been taken by her mum and dad to a lot of football already. However, I had not noticed the gender bias that I may just have been unwittingly putting into place. Whilst going through the first two Stop Out programmes of the season Phoebe discovered that women also play football. If it has pictures then Phoebe generally has her nose in it but this time we heard her saying "girls... girls". My partner Kylie then told her that girls play football the same way that boys do. It was here that Kylie and I realised that Phoebe's little blank look had an element of disbelief about it. After all, I guess, in all of the matches she has been to, about fifteen so far, not once has any woman appeared on the pitch.

As I started thinking about it, not introducing Phoebe to women's football. I made a few excuses to myself. After all I saw my first women's match back in the seventies. Then I watched my sister, Susan, play on to get two Kelly Cup Final medals and three championship medals. I coached, briefly a women's team... and I have spent, of late, about three seasons watching another club's first team in the Women's Central League. (Tangent: This, I understand, made Chris Canton despair.) I can even say I saw Maia Jackman's out of this world header in that final at Newtown Park. However, it was a comment on Facebook that made me think a little more. I wrote, of the season starting that weekend 'all set for Saturday?' and the reply read '...and Sunday'. Despite all of the above I had completely overlooked that the weekend marked the start of the football season for both men and women. Why was that the case? I tried again to defend it by thinking that I tend to focus on two teams regardless of gender and they are Stop Out and Wellington Phoenix but therein lies the argument. The term, Stop Out, as I use it means just the men's first team and is not a catch all for teams that represent this club.

In conversation with a particular club stalwart I know that he often says "which team" when I say to him that I went to watch Stop Out play. To this I sometimes hesitate and as myself why he does not realise what I mean. With more thinking I believe that he has the healthier attitude. He sees the club as a set of teams that cover different playing levels and different genders. It is just the way it is. So, my lesson is learned and this Sunday Phoebe, and I, will be on the sideline watching Stop Out in another of its forms.

Life-long Stop Out fan Mike Barton gives us his personal view on the beautiful game!
