The First Word

My blood is red... and gold!

It's getting to the half way point for all our teams and the onset of winter... real winter! So it's very refreshing to know all our Tier 1 Men's and Women's teams are well positioned in their respective leagues. The Premiers are two points off the top, the 2nd team is sitting in fourth, and the 3rds after promotion last year have carried on that form and are well positioned in third spot.

And the women are similar with the Premiers currently in first and the Women's 1 side after a comfortable first round are well positioned as the league resets points back to zero for the second round. And look further through the programme to see how well our Masters teams are doing!

'So what makes for a successful club?' For us we aim to provide a balanced input into our Men's, Women's, Juniors and Masters – Serious and social. Other clubs don't have that total focus and of course there's no right model, but the Executive is driven to succeed and provide a total experience for our players and supporters. This photo highlights how we honour our own.

Importantly we are driven to build on our strong club culture of camaraderie and inclusiveness, and provide club facilities and playing grounds first class. Our work with the local council has seen significant upgrade work done on Hutt Park to make the fields as good as anywhere in the region. And Hutt Park has been our spiritual home since 1930 when Moera Stop Out first played here. Good location for a regional stadium some might say!

Womens 'Original' Brooke

Don't lose sight that Stop Out is focused on winning. Of course we are! Central League is a target for both our Men's and Women's sides—that's no secret. And we've gone very close in the last few years. That push won't slow down until we achieve that goal.

What was very pleasing to see at last Sunday's first team game against Lower Hutt was the presence and vocal support from the Men's 2nd team and U17 players as well as the solid core of traditional supporters at the game. Thanks to Stu and Raff for that. And the visiting Stop Out support far outweighed the home side's. That's what club culture is all about!

To today's game and a warm welcome to Olympic. It looks already like just 3 teams are fighting for the promotion spot with Miramar and Olympic adding "nuisance value" to upset the leaders. Olympic always play an exciting brand of football and that's welcomed with our side also looking at a possession style of play. In a league of varied quality having Olympic's free-flowing style is a refreshing change. Welcome home Jack and good luck to all teams at Hutt Park today. And as a club we value the after match conviviality. So please enjoy our Stop Out camaraderie and after match hospitality.

Chris Canton, President

Women's roundup

Since our last update we've witnessed a weekend dominated by wind and then a weekend of picture perfect calm from the weather gods.

The past weekend saw perfect football conditions, not a breath of wind on a fine, crisp winter day. The Premiers put Karori to the sword 6-1, with Heather Williamson in just her second start at this level bagging a hat trick. This home game for Karori was on the turf at St.Pat's Town – go figure? - just across the road from Kilbirnie Park where the D1 team was putting Marist to bed, 11-1.

Three hat tricks amongst the 11 goals scored; Taryn Ryan, Georgia Izzett & Jane Boyers all repeatedly on target. Marist for their part were a chipper lot, the cart wheel performed by their lone scorer (as she doubled their season tally) was worth the price of admission!

The weekend of wind saw an under strength Premier's earn a creditable draw at BNU, a result that kept them atop the league & the D1 team of "Cool Kids" hold off their BNU opponents 2-1.

Those with a few years memory of our women's football will recall our team in 2009 playing through fierce hail storms that savaged the region so the zephyr of 180km gusts was child's play! You can check out the photo on the club room wall for that particular day and the national newspaper coverage the team got.

CARTERS PETONE

Sad though that a club that last winter boasted a Central League and a Premier League presence is now survived only by this “social” team of some longevity. One relegation from CL and the house of cards collapsed in on itself.

Our highlight from the day might just be Taryn’s “keepy-upsy” juggling of the ball over the Marist keeper, four touches of the ball without it touching the ground...the 4th touch her burying the ball home from close range.

This week we embark on the rejigged grades, the “Cool Kids” keen for the challenge of round two in D1 – the Blacks in D2 and the Reds looking forward to life in D3. The Premiers host KCU at Hutt Park (1:00pm) as they look to maintain their lead over the chasing pack.

Stop Out 2 vs Wgtn Utd 2
Hutt Park, 24th May 2014
Scorers: Gaughan, Zarka
MOM Steve Gullely

Thanks to the council doing some mid-season "repairs" our important game against Wellington Utd was transferred to the number 2 ground, with a ridiculously strong wind having a big impact on the ability of both teams to play their natural game. We played into the wind in the first half. At times we struggled to clear the ball but when we moved the ball to feet we looked the better side and capable of causing the Wellington United defence some problems. The start was fairly even but as the half went on we started to gain control of the ball, if not the field position due to the conditions. Joe Gaughan continued his strong run of form by taking the lead midway through the first half. Wellington United's main threat was from set piece, either from corners or free kicks as the wind was making it difficult to judge the flight of the delivery. We coped very well for the most part. The game was defined in a 5 minute period just before the break. We had a couple of great chances to increase our lead but were unable to convert. With the conditions as they were if we could have gone in with a 2 goal lead then I think the gap would have been too large to close. But we did not take those chances and with pretty much the last play of the first half we didn't mark well enough in the box from a cross and their man arrived unmarked at the back post to level things up.

At halftime we were confident that we could dominate the possession and the territory and as a result the chances would continue to come. I think that we began too casually and didn't make the right decisions to enable this to happen. Early in the second half we were caught in possession and through a scrappy finish we fell behind 2-1. This rattled us for a while as we got frustrated in finding the right passing range in the wind, but slowly started to gain control of the game. We started creating more chances and forcing set piece after set piece. We converted one into a goal with 15 minutes to go to level the game at 2-2. From here we looked the most likely to take all 3 points but just could not find the killer touch in the remaining minutes. Other results left the league with only 2 points separating the top 5 sides.

Lower Hutt 0 vs Stop Out 7
Fraser Park, 1st June 2014 Scorers:
Gaughan 3, Gullely, Khouchaba,
Porter, Zarka. MOM Fisum Aden

Our first Sunday game of the season away to Lower Hutt meant that we could see all other results in the league before playing. We knew that nothing other than three points would be enough to keep pace with those around us.

With a couple of players away it gave us the opportunity to start Paora for the first time and give plenty of game time to another young player, Dan De Gans. Lower Hutt started the game with 5 at the back, with the aim to stop our attacking threat. We started well and our movement up top meant that we were able to score after just 90 seconds, through Joe Gaughan and not let Lower Hutt settle into the defensive shape that might have frustrated us.

For the numbers they had back Joe continued to find space as he put another shot just wide a minute or so later. We soon made it two from a scrappy corner, Joe showed us his versatility in attack by using his knee, shin, and boot in one movement to put a "shot" on target. Cherbel got the final touch putting the ball past the goalkeeper to make it 2-0. On the half hour mark, Paora scored from a tight angle to make it 3-0. Paora then took a knock to the head which gave Dan a good hour, in which he really impressed.

Joe Gaughan has now scored 41 goals in 25 appearances. That's an average of 1.64 goals a game! He's averaging 2.2 goals a match in 2014!

Fisum was having an outstanding game from left back and came forward with the ball to deliver a perfect cross for Joe to score his second with a great header. Definitely goal of the game.

Half time it was 4-0 and a very solid performance. Second half started very well and within 5 minutes of the re-start it was 6-0 with goals coming to Steve Gulley and Joe completing his hat-trick after being laid on by Dan. The game started to get a bit niggly with Lower Hutt getting a bit frustrated, a few late challenges came into the game and as a result some of the pace and intensity dropped away. Sam Zarka broke through late to cap off another great performance with a goal a few minutes from the end. A good solid performance and a clean sheet heading into a season defining month, we host Olympic before heading away to Miramar and returning to play Karori. All to play for!

What a result last week! For the first time since ‘Man ruled the Earth’ the Blacks and McCreadie Clowns both secured victories on the same day! And what a victory for McCreadies - beating Marist 2-1 their first points for the season and helping catapult the Blacks to the top of the table. Sadly a 5.15pm kick off in town for the Clowns meant the normal banter and celebration could not be shared between the teams at the Hutt Park after match.

SPOTTY'S BOY MAKES GOOD!

Adam Reynard—son of “Spotty” from the Clowns took a nasty knock in the 2nd team’s victory against Douglas Villa a couple of weeks ago. But that didn’t stop him from scoring the winner last weekend - a cheeky 30yd lob against near neighbours Lower Hutt. A 1-0 victory sees the side record their third victory on the trot and a move into 4th spot on the table. Next up second placed Tawa visit Hutt Park today on HP#2.

WOMEN'S PREMIER Match report Craig Darby

Women's Premier.
Stop Out vs BNU 25th May 2014

Wakefield Park at its best. A strong northerly blowing across the park was going to be an issue for the top of the table clash. We have been hit with injuries and illness so welcome stepping up Heather and Amalia for this important game.

This was always going to be a tight tussle as it proved to be. The first half was a struggle for both teams to come to grips with the wind and as Elliot commented it was the worst he had seen at Wakefield—which is saying something!

Both sides had opportunities during the half with any productive play normally broken down by the wind. However with a couple of minutes to halftime BNU converted a rare chance to go 1-0 up at the break.

The second started well with us hot on attack Saskia scores less than a minute into the half. We continue to dominate the game with some good work by all. Heather causing the defence some issues with great attacks. Mel /Saskia and Amalia working hard in the midfield. Also a special mention to the young girls Flo and Chelsea who played exceptionally well.

But we were unable to get through with the game finishing 1-1. However we stay top of the table on goal difference. It was a battle in gale force winds with a good percentage of the game spent chasing the ball.

Stop Out vs Karori 2nd June 2014

An interesting home venue for Wharfies St Pats Town but what a day stunning at Evans Bay not a breathe of wind and a cloudless sky. Brilliant day for football. Some players back from the Flu and injury so we are looking for a good performance to go with the weather. Note that Wharfies have sent along there CL striker so this should provide some entertainment.

From the kickoff we start strong and settle into our patterns early with good passing and dominate possession as well as territory. After 10 mins Saskia sets us away followed by Heather 5 mins later and again after 23mins. Wharfies are not done and a rare attack is finished by a great shot. Heather is working well creating opportunities plus being there to finish off and is rewarded with her hat trick goal at the 40min mark Halftime arrives we are 4-1 up.

In the second half we are all over them Mel finally gets one in the net after having missed a few close ones Birthday girl Saskia scores again in the 75min. As a team we were far too strong and the depth Elliot has built is evident Their passing game just gets better and better. Picking PODs is becoming extremely difficult. HT 4-1 (Saskia 10m/Heather 15,23,40) FT 6-1 (Mel 56m,Saskia 75m) POD 3 Points 3 Saskia/2 Points Heather/1 Point Christine.

BRANDON reaches 50 not out!

Brandon Tai recently celebrated his 50th first team appearance. Our player of the year in 2012 Brandon has been a fixture at right back for the first team since arriving from St Pats Silverstream.

Raffa's provided some stats around 'Brons' first 50.

Debut 09/05/2010 vs. Western Suburbs Reserves at Endeavour Park in a 3-0 win came on for Steve Guley. Had his gap year in 2011 in the UK. First start for the 1st team (League or Cup) 07/04/2012 vs. Olympic (Capital Premier) at Hutt Park in a 5-3 win. Started at Left back.

First start for the 1st team (Friendly) was May 2010 vs. Wellington Phoenix marking Paul Ifill. Only one card received in 50 games. That was his red card vs. Petone Reserves on the 25th May 2013

Year	App'nces	Starts	Sub	Sub On	Sub Off	Goals	Assists	Yellows	Sent Off
2012	23	23			1		2
2013	17	17			1				1
2014	8	8			1		2
	50	48	2	2	3	0	4	0	1

Breakdown of Stats	TOTAL	WIN	DRAW	LOSS
Capital Premier	43	28	4	11
Chatham Cup	5	3	0	2
Play offs	2	0	1	1
	50	31	0	14

So when Brandon plays we win 65% of our league games. Not a bad record. Time for a goal though!

The Last Word!

Bread and Circuses

For about the last twenty five years I have been in an argument with my good friend Mark. His contention is that ball sports, mostly at the elite level, are just an opium for the masses. An attempt by the powers that be, whoever, to distract the citizen from challenging the hegemony of that ruling class. On my part I tend to disagree. That said I suppose you could make something of a case, especially in the case of leaders who drape themselves in national flags come the time of major events like World Cups. Mark did agree to challenge his own preconceptions and went with me to a professional football match in London. However this proved to be a nil nil with a crowd about as animated as a wet paper bag.

Mark's response was that it clearly was opium for the masses. Seeing the blank and bored faces around me he could be forgiven for thinking his argument was valid. The antagonism towards ball sports is still here though. Even today a non ball-sports acquaintance sent me this message. "On a more day to day level, I get frustrated that fit young men waste their time playing sports when they could be helping old or sick neighbours with their gardens. And mature men who waste their energy in sport instead of doing handyman jobs for the neighbours and teaching young men how to fix things.". My girlfriend Kylie's immediate response was that things are not always separate and that plenty of people are capable of doing both things. Further Kylie mentioned things like community and networking, I have no idea what other people's experiences are like but I find joining with one group tends to lead to links with other groups. Even within the group that is Stop Out, that is probably the case.

Getting back to Mark's point, if we look at the coverage local football gets in Wellington it might be better to think of our game as the "sedative for the few". It is also tempting to think the real opium, of the masses, might just be the mortgage. Depending on just where you are with a mortgage it can stymie any thoughts of revolutionary thought. Revolutionary, in this case, might just mean telling the boss you disagree.

So what I want to know is why some people feel so antagonised by a lot of people standing on a sideline shouting advice to people, in our case, kicking a spherical object about? It is perfectly harmless. It gets us out of the house. We get some fresh air. We network and we socialise. A truly non ball sports friend of mine, Nick, went to a football match last year, First in his fifty five years, and all he could talk of afterwards was the community feeling and the conviviality of it. As he told me 'people were happy to talk, openly, to a complete stranger'. We need more of this!

Life-long Stop Out fan Mike Barton gives us his personal view on the beautiful game!
