The First Word

My blood is red... and gold!

The first match of the season is always met with anticipation and excitement. And being a home fixture makes it an even more meaningful event. Again we face off against Miramar who always seem to be our opponents early on in the season!

And as normal the pre-season always throws up a few questions—and answers. With our top two squads in Hilton Petone the coaching staff have been able to work around injuries and availability to provide a very thorough pre-season programme. Making the Hilton final was more about a bonus game than anything else but it's always nice to get success over some of the top Central League teams; Upper Hutt and Lower Hutt—as well as beating our old “friends” Waterside.

It's a warm welcome to new 1st team coach Chris Sambrooke who has Capital Premier coaching experience with Petone. Chris has embraced our club philosophy and it's refreshing to know that there won't be much of a change of playing style in 2014. Speaking of coaching, former Capital Football - Football Development Officer Stu Pyne will coach our 2nd team with Raff helping him as Football Manager. The squad has a youth feel about it but a couple of “old heads” Steve Toms and the returning Kevin Hoskins will help steady the ship.

Within the club there's some exciting new signings including Frenchman Sam Zarka from the USA, Matt Everard aka Rada from Joe's village, Joe Sambrooke and Simon Conway from across the river, Scott Williamson from the 'nui and Brazilian Enrico Meirelles from Marist! James Houpt returns to the 1st team squad after a year off. Also look out for young Paoroa Porter—a precocious talent

Packer and Kemp have been wooed by the offers of free souvlaki and ouzo! but the team you'll see today retains the spine of last year's league winning team.

The rest of the club kick off this weekend and there's also a lot of expectation with our Women's 1st team also looking to defend their Premier League title they secured in 2013. Good luck to all teams!

See you in the clubrooms at full time. The beer is cold and the company's good!

JT back to Captain the side in 2014.

James Houpt

Women's Football

Women's Capital Premier
1.00pm 6 April, Hutt Park 1
Stop Out vs Waterside

"Winning means you're willing to go longer, work harder and give more than anyone else" – Vince Lombardi.

This seems an appropriate piece of wisdom for the women's teams of 2014. Our Premiers look to back up last year's title win with a repeat, determined to exceed the achievement of the class of 2013.

Elliott Taylor is once again at the helm of a youthful team that will take the pitch for their first match with a number of new faces to complement the return of most of last year's team. Keep an eye out for the flame haired Jamie Giddy in the midfield, new to town as she embarks on a course of Uni' study or perhaps SaskiaHalfenberg, here for the winter and more than a few miles from her native Berlin home.

Over the winter expect some of our youngsters to step up and thrive in Premier League football, names like Jessie Fussell, Christine Hosie and Sian Feeney spring to mind.

The second team put in two meritorious "half seasons" last year, finishing third both times. This was a pleasing outcome for a team of youngsters and the goal this season is to take the next step and be in a position to challenge for promotion to the Premier League by the end of the year.

This team will nurture new faces straight out of junior football, so look for names like Tayla Eveleigh and Chelsea Empson to feature in match reports throughout the winter.

Promotion last year for the “Blacks” mentored by Angus Williamson means we have two teams in D2 this winter. The “Reds” will be coached by new face, Terry Ross, who we’re very glad to have on board. The two teams might well be broadly a case of the “young & the restless” Reds vs. the “mature and even more restless” Blacks and their local derby will be a must see match at some time over the coming weeks.

The weekend of March 21st-23rd saw our U17 team once again head north to the ACFC Youth tournament, hosted by Auckland City FC at Western Springs. A cracking weekend, superb facilities and spot on organisation made for a terrific 3 days. In just its second year it’s fair to say the bar was raised, both in terms of the tournament and the teams attending. Our team of 14-16 YO’s competed gamely but met northern clubs with playing rosters of experienced 17 year olds and we felt at times they were almost playing senior teams.

It’s fair to say the organisation of youth football in Auckland is impressive, some of which is explained by the larger population & hence player base – but even with two summers of U17 leagues behind us there’s still some way to go for local clubs to compete at this level.

Highlights of the weekend; well the fight back from 0-2 vs. Fencibles to draw 2-2 in our opening game was a great start. We also managed to do the same vs. Claudeland Rovers under lights on Friday, though sadly 2-2 was not the final score that night. In that game Maya Fisher’s stunning half volley from 20 yards on a near zero angle was a goal worth paying to see and the team’s fortitude to beat the traditionally strong Coastal Spirit club (Chch) in 30+ degrees on Saturday afternoon was a fabulous team effort. Final placing of 11th from 16 clubs attending, the groundwork laid for improving that finish next year.

On that note, it’s time for football – 4 games tomorrow, take your pick and catch some of the beautiful Stop Out game on a Sunday.

Mathew Foot of Brendan Foot Motors has come on board as a vehicle sponsor of the Stop Out club.

Chairman's view

Over the last few years the Executive has focused on developing our club grounds, changing rooms and general facilities across the wider club. No question Stop Out is one of the best resourced clubs in the Capital Football region and our club spirit and camaraderie is second to none.

Being the only Sports Club based at our home grounds means we have become guardians of Hutt Park. Very few clubs can attest to that as the growth of artificial pitches whilst positive for football can sometimes mean in certain situations clubs start to lose their identity.

The committee identified that the only thing missing at Stop Out was the teams to support the "bricks and mortar" we have developed. There was certainly capacity in our club for more budding footballers. Well after a recruitment focus over the last few years we have grown our numbers significantly where today we now have with 7 senior Mens teams, 4 Womens teams (equal biggest in the CF region), 3 Masters teams and an u17 team. A total of 15 teams. Interestingly we are one of the few clubs in the Capital Football region growing player numbers

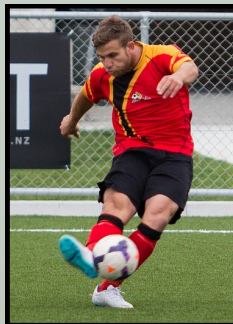

Sure big is not necessarily best in some situations, but importantly those numbers are balanced across Mens, Womens, Youth and Masters. Social and serious!

We will retain our push into junior coaching development and continue the work we are doing in the Southern Hutt Valley with our Football in Schools programme.

Our sponsorship programme has seen the creation of Stop Out Business Connect, where local businesses have joined our family of generous supporters. The club has already attracted support through this sponsorship group and in the 2014 season we have gained a number of key Sponsors including Brendan Foot, Revera, City Electricians, NME and Naylor Love. Our Sponsorship group has been working tirelessly to extend and grow our Business Connect programme to benefit Stop Out across all of our teams.

This season Stop Out will host the 20th edition of the Wynton Rufer Tournament. Last season was the biggest event ever with some 88 teams and over 2,000 supporters visiting Hutt Park for two days of fun and enjoyment of football. In 2014, Revera will again come on board as our principal sponsor, and plans are well progressed to ensure this year's event is even better.

Stop Out are also progressing another new and exciting initiative where will host the inaugural Women's U-20 North Island Tournament over Labour Weekend. Our crew are well advanced with the planning and delivery of what will be a landmark event. Needless to say, the off season has been an extremely busy time for the Club and 2014 will again be a season of both challenges and opportunities. Rest assured Stop Out is ready and willing to grow our great Club still further. Finally to all our members and supporters, have a great and enjoyable season.

Neil Kemp, Chairman

The Last Word!

And so it begins!

It is nearly six months since the second leg of the playoffs against Palmerston North Marist.

In all honesty I have been a bit numb since then. Not for one second leading up to that match did I have any doubt about us securing our place in the Central League. I think the numb feeling was down to a sort of shock. I was just so prepared for our victory. There was no complacency on my part because as, I think, we all know beating other teams at a playoff stage is never an easy matter. In my mind I have been over the match a few times. When we scored was I just loved the shout of the spectators. Most noise, albeit short, that I had heard at a local match in a long time. After this is all said, I go back to the words of the 2009 Bahrain coach, Milan Máčala, after New Zealand had beaten his team. My friend and I were lucky enough to chat with him. He looked at me and my friend Bill. He noted that we were all, more or less, the same age the said "you know... sometimes... it's just football". I think it applied to our playoff result. It was not one thing or another it was just simply the way football is sometimes. After all I believe that it is safe to say that football is something of an imperfect science. Six months on, from the playoff, I want to say thanks to all of those who made last season so positive and, in advance, thanks to all those who are going to make this season one step better.

Earlier today I was talking to my friend Jess about playing sport at a good level. She plays in the premier club netball competition in Wellington. Jess was talking about the importance of being competitive in a sport that is seeing an increased level of physicality. I was taken by her use of the phrase 'duty of care'. The definition I like is 'a requirement that a person act toward others with watchfulness, attention, caution and prudence that a reasonable person in the circumstances would'. A couple of seasons back I saw an opposing player give a Stop Out player a take - trying to sound measured - quite a knock. The knock left him in a heap. Now that I know more about duty of care I believe that challenge was made without any thought of it. That is that player, at that moment, was not thinking sport, or sporting values but simply wanted to impose himself physically on the other. If I was being less diplomatic I would have written that he wanted to hurt him. Our game is essentially amateur and whilst ACC will help along the way it is still better to walk to work than hobble to work. To borrow from an eighties television series "Let's be careful out there".

Life-long Stop Out fan Mike Barton gives us his personal view on the beautiful game!
