The First Word

My blood is red... and gold!

What a weekend we've just experienced.

Our Central League teams both created a bit of history.

Not since 1969 did the men last beat Miramar Rangers in the Central League. Now that's a long time between drinks but it needs to be tempered with the fact that we spent the 1970s in the National League and Miramar did the same through the 80s. We didn't actually play a match against one other in Central League again until 2006 and since 2009 we've been in Capital Premier. But the stats don't lie and thank goodness the hoodoo of 46 years is over!

And our Women's team created history on Sunday with our first ever win in the Women's Central League. A fantastic result that sees them into 6th place. There's a full report on both matches later in the programme.

Being the region's only club with both Men's and Women's Central League teams can be challenging in relation to finances, resources and planning but it's a headache we love having as we strive to be the best club in the region... and New Zealand!

Today is our third match of the season against Napier City Rovers and finally it's our turn to play host. Napier have set the bench mark for the competition this season and are leading the league comfortably.

For us Round 2 is an opportunity to test our progress and whilst all games have so far been ultra competitive we've let quite a few points slip. With the team now coming to grips with the pace and level of Central League that shouldn't happen in Round 2.

Today also sees Old Timers Day at the club—a very special time in our calendar. In our 97th year we have a long and proud history in New Zealand Football circles. As we move towards our centenary in 2019, we have created a long term vision on where we see Hutt Park developing into the future, similar in fact to what Napier boast at Park Island.

Women's Central League vs Valeron, Hutt Park

Coming into today's game against Valeron the ladies had three things they needed to focus on throughout the whole game. 1, Communication on and off the ball. 2, Keep the ball on the ground. 3, Keep the intensity up for whole 90 minutes.... and they managed to do just that.

Winning the kick-off we went straight onto attack and placed Valeron under pressure. The game was played at a fast pace going back and forward but it was the Stop Out ladies settling first and taking control of the game. During the first half Ella Vincent-Hyde had several one on one opportunities with the Valeron keeper but simply could not finish but it was only going to a matter of when and not if, for the first goal to be scored.

Around the 30 minute mark we had Melanie Macdougall (Playing her 100th Game) wanting to be subbed off and Mike simply said 'NO' and moved her up into the attack position and brought Ella back into her role to cover until half time. This did the trick as in the 41st minute of the game Mel took on a couple of players and struck the ball with confidence and placed the ball in the back of the net to give the side a 1-0 lead heading into the half time break.

In the changing rooms the focus was around keeping to our 3 objectives and not letting our concentration slip. We decided that the formation would change from a 4-5-1 to a 4-4-2 for the rest of the game to apply even more pressure onto Valeron.

Second half started and Valeron Kick off. Didn't take long for the ladies to win back possession and then it was happy camping down in Valeron half. Valeron were able to counter attack on several occasions but it was our Captain Aimee Sanson and fellow centre back Cassandra Clendon making her Central League debut that had the back line covered all day and ensured that no shots would be allowed near our goal.

In the 57th Minute of the game the ball got switched from the left hand side through Haley Pllu (also on debut for club) over to the right hand side of the field where a lovely ball was played back to right wing Alysa Darby who managed to execute a long range shot up and over the keeper to make it 2 nil to Stop Out.

After the 2nd goal went in to the back of the net the ladies stepped up once more and provided wave after wave of attack onto the Valeron defence and if it had not been for shots being off target or the keeper making saves the score line could have gotten out of control.

Valeron did manage to place the side under pressure towards the end of the game but a nice counter attack down the right hand side of the field in the 88th minute followed up with a lovely cross in to the 18 yard box area saw Super Sub April Gallagher smash the ball in to the back of the net with a well taken header to make the game 3-0 and ensure the game was taken out of Valeron hands.

Overall the best performance the side has put together in the first round of the competition. This has shown that the ladies are getting better and better with every week they play and provided the momentum keeps going it will make for an interesting 2nd round of competition starting off against Upper Hutt this weekend at home

Women's Update

Wow – where did that go? Halfway through the season already. Time for a check-up then? So far 2015 has been a tough gig for the Reds and the Blacks. Both teams have fought well but struggled for results in D1 and D2 respectively and at the mid-season shuffle have dropped down one grade. To me this is a good thing, and the whole point that the mid-season regrade was brought in a few years back. No one, no matter their ability level enjoys too many games where the team is out of their depth and coming a distant second on occasion so we look forward to the second half of the season and a few more smiles at the end of games in D2 and D3 respectively.

As always it's great to have Terry and Angus on the sidelines, providing the coaching nuggets for the teams and there's some confidence in the two camps that come August both teams will be knocking on the door of promotion for the start of 2016.

Of course this year the preseason as already mentioned was the most tumultuous we can recall. The demise of women's football at Lower Hutt City and the withdrawal of the Karori CL team shook up the local landscape. Aside from a huge amount of player movement there was the somewhat irregular promotion of teams to fill vacant Central and Premier League places. Here at Stop Out we were the beneficiary of those shenanigans, a good outcome but a challenging one all the same as we scrambled to field two competitive sides at the highest levels of local football.

Stellar work from the coaching/management team has seen the two teams' progress well, not always getting the results at this stage but certainly in good heart for the second half of the winter. There's a good mix of familiar faces across the two teams mingled with new recruits who are all bringing something to the table and the team lists of the past week or two look on paper immensely stronger than the lists of early April.

The weekend before last the Premier team clipped the wings of the table topping Petone team in the first round of the Premier Cup, a team performance that augurs well for the 2nd round of competition. The team is in a dog fight with Karori and KCU and we're backing Phil and the girls to climb past these two.

The CL team caused a little bit of history last weekend. For those at Hutt Park on a beautiful afternoon the team put on a terrific team display in overwhelming the visiting Valeron team from Palmerston North. The team roster included debutants, Emily Yates and Kass Clendon, (Kass playing go at centre back and taking out the player of the day award). Also playing her first game for the team was the experienced Haley Pllu who is a welcome addition to the midfield. Don't be surprised if Mike adds a couple more players to the roster before the transfer window closes at the end of the month. At the end of the first round the team sit 6th of 8 teams, mindful of a few tough weeks looming against higher placed teams but in better shape for those challenges than they were in April.

Tomorrow, all four teams are scheduled for home games at Hutt Park. At 11am take your pick, there's the D3 Blacks hosting Wellington United or the Premier team hosting Petone. At 1pm we have kick offs for the D2 Reds and the Central League team. The Reds keen for a win over BNU, while the CL team have an upset in their plans in the local derby versus Upper Hutt.

3rd's Wall of Death

It's some record that Marty Dutton's Capital 6 side are building. In eight matches this season they have conceded just one solitary goal, and have a healthy plus 42 goal difference.

Now that goal came on the 18th April so if they can get a clean sheet in their next home fixture on Monday night 15th June on the Petone turf against University it will be 2 months without conceding a goal. Some record!

Footnote: Can anyone explain how a home match can be Monday night 8.15pm on the Petone turf?

Central League Rnd 9 v Miramar Rangers, Hutt Park

After a tight loss to Wests last time out it was another big name that we welcomed to Hutt Park in Miramar Rangers. Last year's champions have found the start of the season difficult but with their Team Wellington players back from the O League we knew we would be up for a real test.

Chris Sambrooke

MOM James Wypych

We started the game well we looked controlled and composed at the back and started to cause a few problems moving forward. As we started to assert ourselves things got a little tougher for Miramar as Schaeffers was sent off after 25 minutes for a second bookable offence. From the resulting set piece the ball was poorly cleared and Micky Malivuk nodded in the opener to give us a deserved lead. Despite looking the more likely to score again we went into the break 1-0 up.

At halftime we spoke about the importance of a second goal, but even more so keeping a clean sheet that would guarantee a good result. Miramar started well, keeping four at the back and pushing as many forward as they could to cause us problems. This was effective for the first 10 minutes or so until we started to break out from the back with balls through midfield which allowed us to get the ball down and commit numbers to attacks of our own.

James Wypych scored his first goal for the club to extend our lead and shortly after completed some great build up work beating his man out wide to square the ball for Michael Hagarty to score his first goal on his return to the club in his 49th appearance.

The only down point of the game was a late red card and some injuries to nurse during the week.

Next up Napier City Rovers, the league leaders at Hutt Park. It will be a great challenge, but one we look forward to.

The Evening Post, Central League update

Stop Out humble 10-man Miramar

STOP OUT easily saw off defending champions Miramar at Hutt Park on Saturday, beating them 3-0 in the latest round of Central League football.

Looking to build on last week's win over Wellington Olympic, Miramar did anything but. Things were looking grim after half an hour, when they lost defender Tim Schaeffers to a red card after receiving two cautions.

Stop Out made the numerical advantage count almost immediately when Micky Malivuk headed home after a poor clearance from goalkeeper Michael O'Keeffe.

Malivuk continued to create problems for the Miramar defence as he proved to be an effective target man with Miramar's outlet in Henry Fa'arodo well-isolated by the Stop Out defenders.

James Wypych put away Stop Out's second of the afternoon before putting the third goal on a plate for Michael Hagarty to bundle in at the back post later in the match. The win moves Stop Out comfortably to the middle of the table while Miramar remain on seven points at the bottom end of the table.

At the sharp end of things, Napier City Rovers maintained their position at the top of the table in beating Western Suburbs 5-1 at Park Island, yesterday.

Elsewhere, Petone managed to retain the O'Brien Shield in the local derby against Lower Hutt City at Petone Memorial Park. Petone struggled to gain the ascendancy but a great cross by George Milne proved to be enough as Van Elia got onto the end of it to give the hosts a close 1-0 win.

Palmerston North Marist scored six of the best against Tawa in Palmerston North in a game that did nothing to ease Tawa's relegation worries.

Miramar striker Henry Fa'arodo is engulfed by defenders during Stop Out's 3-0 Central League win on Saturday.

In the late game, Wellington Olympic travelled to Masterton Memorial Turf to play Wairarapa United. While Olympic managed to control large periods of the game, it was Wairarapa who got the go-ahead goal after 40 minutes when a cross found Seule Soromon at the back post who finished with a tidy diving header to give the hosts the lead. That header proved to be the only goal of the match and enough to secure the three points, pushing Wairarapa up to second place.

Central League mid-season review

The conclusion of the Miramar game marked the halfway point in the season. Four wins and twelve points have put us comfortably in mid-table. We have been competitive in all games this season; in our losses only top of the table Napier City Rovers has beaten us by more than a single goal (3-1 in the first round). We have had changes in personnel at the club that was always going to take time to settle and more injuries than we would have expected, so with that in mind we should be comfortable with where we are...

The fantastic part of working with this group of coaches and players that is anyone asked someone in the group if they are content with where they are in the league they will get a resounding no as a response. The appetite to do well and exceed expectations runs right through this squad.

What we have done in the first half of this season is a good benchmark it's been about putting in solid performances week in week out. We have done that, although minor mistakes and short lapses of concentration at this level can punish. This is certainly a learning we have taken from our first 9 league games.

So onto the second round, we are playing better each week and we will look to really enforce ourselves onto the league. We will look to shock a few teams up the top and really assert ourselves on the teams around us. We have a tough start with Napier City Rovers at home to begin the round, but what better way to set a challenge than against the deserved league leaders coming off an emphatic victory over Western Suburbs last time out.

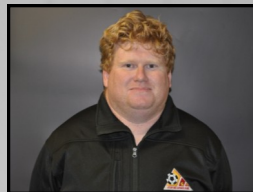

It is an exciting time to be part of this club and I truly believe that we are heading in the right direction.

Look forward to seeing you all down at Hutt Park over the last 9 rounds.

The Last Word!

Globalising the game... And having breakfast.

Life-long Stop Out fan Mike Barton gives us his perspective on the beautiful game!

For what may be the first time Stop Out, Myanmar, Barcelona and Ghana all get mentioned in the same football article. The last week has been, at the risk of getting carried away, a 'frenzy' of football activity. Men's Under 20 World Cup, Men's Central League, and, as I write, this morning's UEFA Champions League Final. One constant theme across the three competitions, for me, has been food. I am not one for food at matches as I usually get absorbed by the game and completely discount eating. It is not the priority, the match is. Ghana versus Argentina on Wednesday (3rd of June) was a great match. Not a good one but a great one. In my book one of the very best I have been to. If Godfred Donsah turns down Juventus we really should declare an interest. Most of the 5,542 that were there, at the final whistle seemed to believe that it was a great match. It was breathless. High skill, energy and drama. On the food side I was offered some fish and chips. Not as interesting as the match but not without its own drama. Opening those little tomato sauce sachets whilst trying to give players instructions is never easy. Then the chips were a bit cold. Fish wasn't.

Friday and we went to the match between New Zealand and Myanmar. At which I consumed more chips at one sitting than I have ever attempted before. They just kept arriving. First lot were near cold but later deliveries were hot and way too salty. The match itself kept us all focussed and wasn't until after than we all had raging thirsts. The stadium water fountain has never delivered so much to so few. The other major point was whether or not the Myanmar support 'out-supported' the New Zealand support.

Saturday, at Hutt Park, was left over day. The leftovers being two bars of chocolate mess, both of which are globally popular, that I had acquired on the way to the stadium. Each is possessed of more than enough sugar and several thousand (exaggeration) calories. Not that I ate much as watching us beat Miramar Rangers, so emphatically, was a buffet in itself. Way better than the sugary chocolate things. The question that arose was when was the last time we beat them at that level. (Where is a statistician when you need one?) It was a good win delivered, I thought, in some style.

Then on to the Champions League Final. I made the trek to Chez Alastair a fine little bistro on the Left Bank of the Waiwhetu Stream. These boutique eateries are in odd places. My expectation was a rooibos tea and some football. Instead it was haricots cuits au four with toasted grain bread, eggs and saucisse végétarienne. Then the football. It was hard to decide which was the sharper Barcelona's intent or the haircuts on display. Arturo Vidal's razor cuts were very good. Paul Pogba's highlight work would have taken an age.
